HALO Properties Managing Partner Danny Hale and CRD President David Kass made the announcement.

The nationally prominent retailers announced were : Barnes & Nobel, Regal Cinema, Lane Bryant, Jos. A. Bank, New York & Company, J. "This impressive list of businesses that we've announced today realize that Indian Lake Village represents the next major growth surge in the Middle Tennessee area," said Hale. "When you combine the current housing population in the Hendersonville/Gallatin area," he added, "with the additional 15,000 homes slated for construction nearby, Indian Lake Village becomes an almost required presence for growth-minded businesses."

CRD's Kass echoed Hale's sentiment by adding, "we are thrilled to be bringing these great specialty retail and entertainment tenants to Hendersonville." "This is just the first wave," he concluded, "we'll have many more great names to share with you in the weeks and months to come."

The nearly 300-acre Indian Lake Village development is Tennessee's first-ever lifestyle community where living, working, shopping and playing are all within walking distance in a single neighborhood. Over the next 3-5 years, Indian Lake Village will be home to over 1,000 discriminating homes, 2.5 million square feet of Class A office space and 1.5 million square feet of high-end retail shops, restaurants, a hotel/conference center, multi-plex-cinema, greenways, bike trails and more.
